AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

NOW COME the Defendants, WOLVERINE HUMAN SERVICES, and WOLVERINE HUMAN SERVICES, INC., (hereinafter “Defendants Wolverine”), by and through their attorneys, ZAUSMER, P.C., and for their Affirmative Defenses to Plaintiff’s Complaint, state the following:

1. Plaintiff has failed to state any statutory or common law duty that has been breached.
2. This matter may be barred by the expiration of the statute of limitations, the statute of repose, and any applicable savings period or provision, including, but not limited to, the non-retroactivity of change or modification to a statute of limitations, statute of repose, or savings period or provision.
3. Principles of comparative fault and/or comparative negligence may bar or reduce Plaintiff’s claimed damages.

4. This matter may be barred by release.
5. This matter may be barred by consent.
6. This matter may be barred by equitable principles, including but not limited to estoppel, collateral estoppel and laches.
7. There is no vicarious liability for one or more claims brought against Defendants Wolverine.
8. Defendants Wolverine did not breach any standards of care or practices.
9. Defendants Wolverine are not liable for the damages caused by the criminal conduct of another.
10. The sole proximate cause, most immediate cause, or at least a contributing cause, of the damages and/or injuries complained of by the Plaintiff was the negligence and/or comparative negligence and/or actions of persons other than Defendants Wolverine, and any potential recovery should be reduced or barred.
11. Plaintiff's claim may be barred in total, or at least in part, by the intervening acts and omissions of other third parties.
12. Plaintiff's cause of action may be barred in total, or at least in part, by Plaintiffs' failure to mitigate damages.
13. Plaintiff's claims may be barred in total, or at least in part, by the Michigan Tort Reform Legislation of 1986 including, but not limited to: prejudgment interest on future damages, MCLA 600.6013; collateral source, MCLA

600.6303; separate damages, MCLA 600.6305; and reduction in gross to present value, MCLA 600.6306.

14. Plaintiff's claims may be barred in total, or at least in part, by the Michigan Tort Reform Legislation of 1996 including, but not limited to: abolition of joint liability, MCLA 600.2956; allocation of liability, percentage of fault, immunities and non-parties at fault, MCLA 600.2957; comparative fault, reduction of economic damages, disallowance of non-economic damages, MCLA 600.2959.

15. Defendants Wolverine hereby claim a set-off for any and all monies received by the Plaintiff from any other parties, non-parties or entities as a result of any of the injuries or damages claimed in Plaintiff's Complaint.

16. There is no cause of action in Michigan for gross negligence.

17. Principles of parental immunity may apply and bar Plaintiff's claims.

18. The elements of intentional infliction of emotional distress are not present under the facts of the present case.

19. There is no private right of action in Michigan for a violation of licensing rules, regulations and/or statutes.

20. Plaintiff's claims may be barred by res judicata.

21. There exists no private right of action for one or more of Plaintiff's other claims, including the federal claims.

22. Michigan law holds that employers and principals are not vicariously liable for the intentional torts and/or intentional criminal conduct of employees or agents.

23. No facts in this case give rise to the allegation of deliberate indifference, willful or wanton conduct, gross negligence or the like.

24. No facts in this case give rise to the allegation that there was an official policy that deprived Plaintiff of any constitutional right or harmed Plaintiff in any way.

25. These claims may be barred by immunity conferred by statute and/or common law, including, but not limited to, governmental immunity and 691.1631 et seq.

26. Plaintiff may be pursuing claims involving social workers (and/or vicarious liability for same) licensed under article 15 of the public health code, Act No. 368 of the Public Acts of 1978, being sections 333.16101 to 333.18838 of the Michigan Compiled Laws and therefore should have filed this action as a malpractice action, as it involved social worker malpractice. Plaintiff has failed to file a Notice of Intent to File Claim, and Plaintiff has failed to wait the requisite period of time prior to filing the present action. Plaintiff has failed to serve an Affidavit of Merit with his Complaint.

27. Plaintiff's claim is barred because Plaintiff has failed to file a notice in the court of claims as required by MCL 600.6431.

28. Plaintiff's claim may be barred by MCL 600.2955a.

29. Plaintiff's claim may be barred by the Wrongful Conduct Rule.

30. Plaintiff has failed to join necessary parties to this action.

31. Defendants Wolverine aver that it was guided by and strictly observed all of its legal duties and obligations imposed by operation of law and otherwise.

32. The elements of negligent infliction of emotional distress are not present for several reasons, and specifically for the reason that this matter does not involve a bystander claim.

33. Further, Defendants Wolverine hereby reserve the right to raise any and all further special and/or affirmative defenses as same become known through the course of discovery.

Respectfully submitted,

ZAUSMER, P.C.
